

That Hanukkah sounds beautiful! Before we end, I have one final question, just for fun. Of all the movies in this year's festival, which is your favorite and why?

A Starry Sky Above the Roman Ghetto, probably. Why, because I love the ending! I didn't suspect it, didn't see it coming, but when it came, it just blew me away. I also liked the teenagers working together, I really like to see that, Jewish teens coming together. With my humor and my history doing stand-up, I loved A Jew Walks Into A Bar, too.
